PARISH NOTES

Community information day : Friday 27th September from 10 until 2.30 we are hosting an event where we are inviting all groups and organisations that meet in Morriston to come along and promote their group. I would be grateful if representatives of each of our church groups could be present. We will put together information sheets and posters about each group.

Sunday School : restarts next Sunday. Please let our young members know. Please help by talking to families you know with children about Sunday school and letting them know that all are welcome. Sarah or any of our teachers would be happy to give families more information if needed.

Thank you : the charity Water Aid have sent a thank you letter for the donation of £160 following our coffee morning for them.

Brecon trip : would those joining us on 2nd October please pay your £10 as soon as you can if you have not already done so. Thank you.
