PARISH NOTES

Welcome Back : to our Sunday School. I hope you all had a good Summer. Congratulations to all our young members who have picked up exam results over the Summer. Don't forget to let families with children know about our Sunday School. It would be lovely to welcome new members.

Community information day : Friday 27th September from 10 until 2.30 we are hosting an event where we are inviting all groups and organisations that meet in Morriston to come along and promote their group. I would be grateful if representatives of each of our church groups could be present. We will put together information sheets and posters about each group. If you belong to any organisations that would like to take part they would be very welcome.

Brecon trip : would those joining us on 2nd October please pay your £10 as soon as you can if you have not already done so. Thank you.
